ORDER

AND NOW, this 26th day of June, 2020, upon consideration of Plaintiff Jose Adorno's Motion to Proceed In Forma Pauperis (ECF No. 1), Prisoner Trust Fund Account Statement (ECF No. 3), Complaint (ECF No. 2), and for the reasons set forth in the Opinion issued this date, it is ORDERED that:

1. Leave to proceed in forma pauperis is GRANTED.
2. Jose Adorno, #LF-5625, shall pay the full filing fee of $350 in installments, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b), regardless of the outcome of this case. The Court directs the Superintendent of SCI Frackville or other appropriate official to assess an initial filing fee of 20% of the greater of (a) the average monthly deposits to Adorno's inmate account; or (b) the average monthly balance in Adorno's inmate account for the six-month period immediately preceding the filing of this case. The Superintendent or other appropriate official shall calculate, collect, and forward the initial payment assessed pursuant to this Order to the Court with a reference to the docket number for this case. In each succeeding month when the amount in Adorno's inmate trust fund account exceeds $10.00, the Superintendent or other appropriate official shall forward payments to the Clerk of Court equaling 20% of the preceding month's income credited to Adorno's inmate account until the fees are paid. Each payment shall refer to the docket number for this case.

3. The Clerk of Court shall SEND a copy of this Order to the Superintendent of SCI Frackville.

4. The Complaint is DEEMED filed.

5. Defendant George W. Hill Correctional Facility is DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.

6. The Clerk of Court is directed to TERMINATE the George W. Hill Correctional Facility as a Defendant.

7. The balance of the Complaint is DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE for failure to state a claim pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(ii), for the reasons in the Court's Opinion.

8. Adorno is given leave to amend within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order in the event he can state a plausible basis for a claim against an appropriate defendant. Any amended complaint must identify all defendants in the caption of the amended complaint in addition to identifying them in the body of the amended complaint and shall state the basis for Adorno's claims against each defendant. The amended complaint shall be a complete document that does not rely on the initial Complaint or other papers filed in this case to state a claim. When drafting his amended complaint, Adorno should be mindful of the Court's reasons for dismissing the claims in his initial Complaint as explained in the Court's Opinion. Upon the filing of an amended complaint, the Clerk shall not make service until so ORDERED by the Court.

9. The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to furnish Adorno with a blank copy of this Court's current standard form to be used by a self-represented litigant filing a civil action bearing the above-captioned civil action number.

10. If Adorno does not wish to amend his Complaint and instead intends to stand on his Complaint as originally pled, he may file a notice with the Court within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order stating that intent, at which time the Court will issue a final order dismissing the case. Any such notice should be titled "Notice to Stand on Complaint," and shall include the civil action number for this case. See Weber v. McGrogan, 939 F.3d 232 (3d Cir. 2019) ("If the plaintiff does not desire to amend, he may file an appropriate notice with the district court asserting his intent to stand on the complaint, at which time an order to dismiss the action would be appropriate." (quoting Borelli v. City of Reading, 532 F.2d 950, 951 n.1 (3d Cir. 1976))); In re Westinghouse Sec. Litig., 90 F.3d 696, 703–04 (3d Cir. 1996) (holding "that the district court did not abuse its discretion when it dismissed with prejudice the otherwise viable claims . . . following plaintiffs' decision not to replead those claims" when the district court "expressly warned plaintiffs that failure to replead the remaining claims . . . would result in the dismissal of those claims").

11. If Adorno fails to file any response to this Order, the Court will conclude that Adorno intends to stand on his Complaint and will issue a final order dismissing this case.¹ See Weber, 939 F.3d at 239-40 (explaining that a plaintiff's intent to stand on his complaint may be plaintiff's conduct clearly indicates that he willfully intends to abandon the case, or where the plaintiff's behavior is so contumacious as to make adjudication of the case impossible, a balancing of the Poulis factors is not necessary."); *Baker v.
